Fifth Sunday of Lent

Cross

The cross is where Jesus took his last breath. With his legs together and his arms out wide, his body became one with the wooden cross. When we see a cross today, we are reminded of Jesus and how brave and strong he was to take his last breath on a wooden cross so that we could know his love forever and ever.

Have your cross with you each time you say the Lord's prayer this week:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever.

Amen
